RE: Designation of Festivals and Events as Municipally Significant

As result of new language introduced by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario, Community festivals and events are now required to be considered of "municipal significance" and designated as so through Council Resolution.

Community Services requests that the Council of Corporation of the City of Port Colborne deems the annual Flavours of Niagara Food, Wine & Music Festival and the annual Canal Days Marine Heritage Festival as municipally significant events and supports the applications to the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario for Special Occasion Permits.

Respectfully prepared and submitted

Allaina Kane
Special Events Coordinator
