City seeking residents input regarding hunting in Gravelly Bay

Port Colborne, ON (September 4, 2018) – The City of Port Colborne is interested in hearing from residents regarding hunting in Gravelly Bay. The City has developed a short survey to gather information for City Council, along with other public engagement, to assist in evaluating the uses of Gravelly Bay.

The survey is available online at www.portcolborne.ca/page/gravelly_bay , or, hard copies are available for pick up at City Hall, 66 Charlotte Street, Port Colborne. The survey should take less than five minutes to complete. The survey closes Friday, October 5, 2018.

Residents can also provide input and/or complete the survey at an open house scheduled for Wednesday, September 26, 2018 from 5 – 8 p.m. in Council Chambers, 3rd floor of City Hall, 66 Charlotte Street.

If residents have any additional questions about the survey, or Gravelly Bay, they can email Sherry Hanson, By-Law Enforcement Supervisor at sherryhanson@portcolborne.ca or call 905-835-2900 ext. 210.
