

Pet care and grooming services deemed essential during provincewide shutdown

January 8, 2021

Due to concerns for the health and welfare of animals, the Government of Ontario has deemed pet care and grooming services essential.

Pet care and grooming businesses in Port Colborne can continue to provide services during the provincewide shutdown, adhering to certain regulations and rules. The Government of Ontario has outlined available services below:

Veterinary Services

- For services that are necessary for the immediate health and welfare of the animal, provided through curbside pick-up and drop-off of the animal

Other Services

- Other businesses that provide for the health and welfare of animals, including farms, pet grooming, boarding kennels, stables, animal shelters and research facilities
- Businesses that provide pet training exclusively for service animals
